In loving MEMORY OF

Mrs. Stacey
Woodbury

December 19, 1964 ~ January 8, 2024

"In 1st grade Mrs. Woodbury was my teacher, she would bring in the best homemade popcorn balls for special occasions. She always urged me to read bigger books and her encouragement back then is one the reasons I love to read so much now." - Miley Ludwig

"Mrs. Woodbury was my 1st grade teacher, I enjoyed having her. One big memory I have of her is having a daily writing session before lunch. She made us take our time and put our best efforts on these writings. I remember her always reading everyone's writing and asking questions. She always made sure that we were heard and that we always had someone to go to if we needed it. After entering high school, I would occasionally see Mrs. Woodbury in the hallways and she always made sure to stop me and say hello. Even on bad days, she always managed to cheer me up." - Taryn Thorn

"My favorite memory of Mrs Woodberry is that she was always so kind." - Ava McCarthy

"A memory I have about Mrs. Woodbury is when she surprised me with gifts from the kids (I was her cadet) and she surprised me with a gift and money, she was very thoughtful and kind." - Aubrey Mogle

"1st grade holds all memories of Mrs. Woodbury. One went down like this:

Me: Hey, both of our last names have 'berry' in it.

Mrs. Woodbury: Yeah, but mine is spelled like you're burying something."

-Kaleb Ansberry

"She was nice." - Grant Wisner

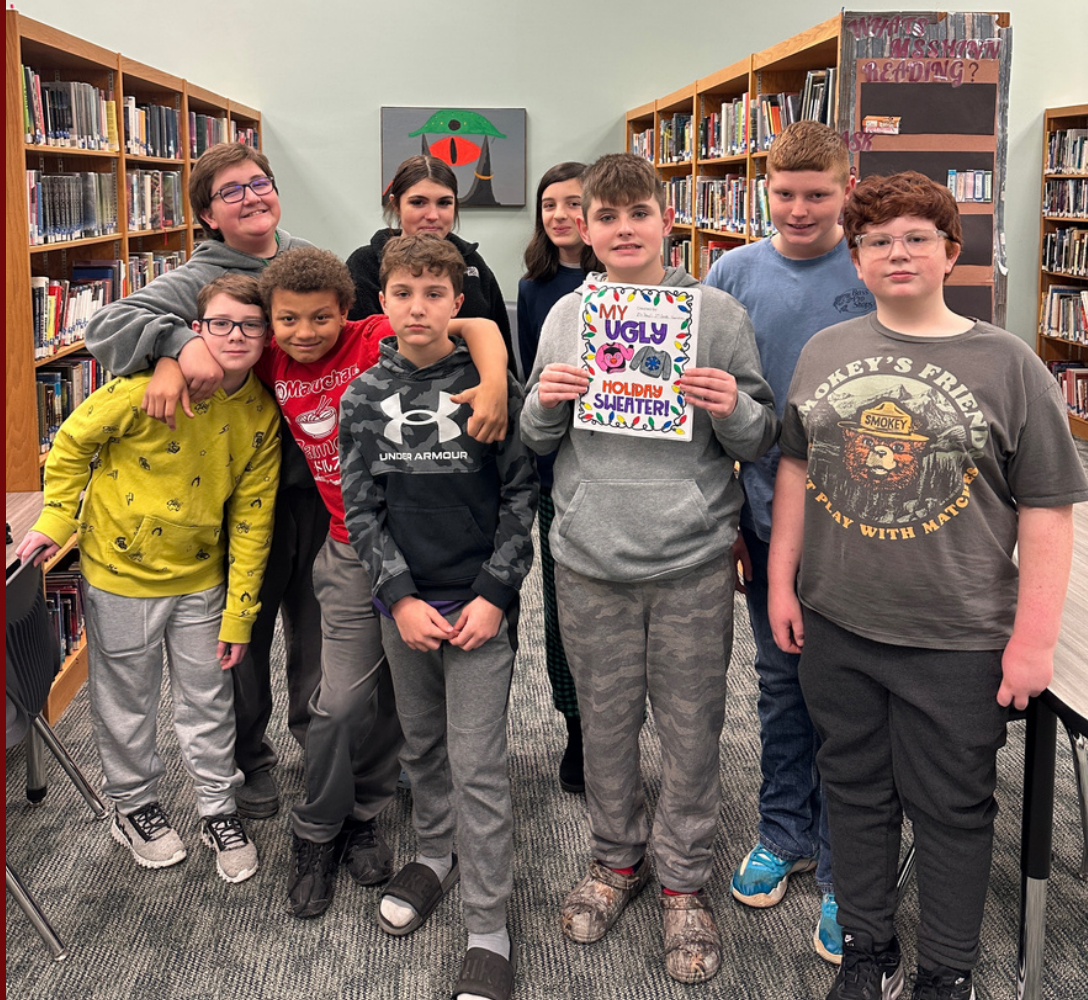

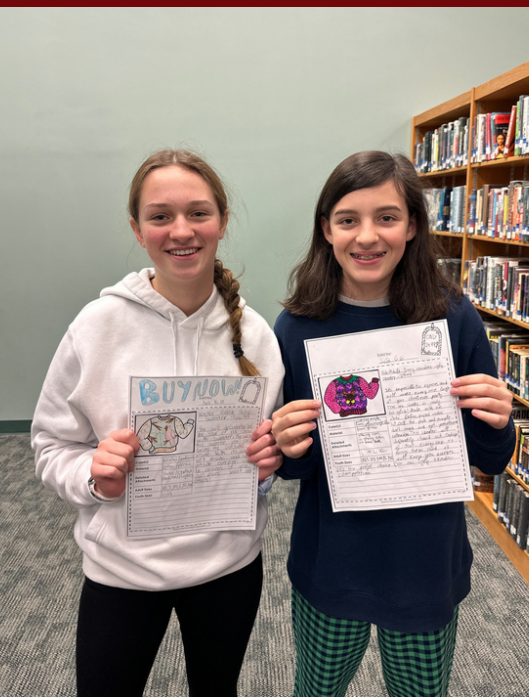

"She would always take us outside in the woods. We would also get extra recess. I always remember when I was little, our pool would fly over in their horse pen and she would always bring it over and make jokes. Our dog would also get loose and we would always chase the dog over there before it got to the horses. When we would walk into school together, we would always make jokes about going home. One of my favorite memories is her grandkids playing and riding horses with her, it was adorable." - Evelyn Atkins
