

James Roberts

Randolph Southern Jr./Sr. High School Athletic Director/Assistant Principal

Press Release

Randolph Southern is pleased to announce the hiring of James Roberts as its new Athletic Director/Assistant Principal. James will begin his duties in July 2021.

James is married to Jamie Roberts, and they have three amazing children. Two daughters and a son. James is a Jay County High School and Ball State University graduate. James earned a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Arts in Education from Ball State University.

James has 11 years of classroom teaching experience, and he has spent seven years as a technology associate. James has been a coach for the last 12 years, and he comes to us from Lakeview Christian in Marion, IN where he served as the K-12 assistant principal. In addition to his assistant principal duties, James served as the Director of Special Education, school Testing Coordinator, and Title 1 Director. James is a collaborative leader who has experience using data to drive instruction in the classroom. He also spent a year as the Director of Athletics at West Jay Community Center, and he stepped in as acting Principal at West Jay Middle School when the school needed him to.

Randolph Southern is tremendously excited to have James join our team. He brings a wealth of experience with him and is exactly who we need to lead our athletic department into the future.
