

A special meeting of the Randolph Southern School Corporation Board of School Trustees was called to order at 7:30 AM on Wednesday, September 23, 2020 in the Superintendent's Office Board Room by President, Mike Miller. The following members were present:

Michael Miller, President
Eric Retter, Vice President
Thomas McFarland, Secretary
Jan Caudle, Member
Patricia Tillson, Member

II. SEP 2020

Superintendent Bowsman discussed with the board the 2020-2021 Master Contract Proposal.

The School Corporation will offer a stipend to 32 highly effective and effective teachers that taught at RSSC in 2019-20 and remain at RSSC in 2020-21. Stipends will be calculated by multiplying each teacher's 2019-20 contract salary by 2%. TRF and 401A contributions will be paid proportionally from the 2% amount. The school corporation will contribute $2,450.00 toward the health savings account for each teacher electing to take health insurance. The school corporation opened the contract in May 2020 and agreed to increase the school corporation health insurance contribution up to $1,000.00 for a single coverage plan and $1,200.00 for a family coverage plan, depending on plan selection.

Jan Caudle made a motion to approve and Tom McFarland seconded the motion and motion carried 5-0.
